

Meet the payment processing innovators for the heating fuels industry

The landscape has changed. Are you paying too much now?

At Richmond Financial Services, we are leading oil and propane payment strategists, well-positioned to deliver our energy clients next generation solutions. The payment processing universe has shifted dramatically and continues to evolve. Our years of experience, invaluable knowledge, and unmatched payment innovation will immediately deliver significant savings.

- Enjoy perpetual processing savings, fast and easy
- Benefit from our next generation technology tools
- Gain data portability and control
- Utilize our electronic recurring payment expertise and cutting-edge strategies

The nationally recognized industry leader

Our founder, Larry Richmond, is the visionary behind utility rate processing for the heating fuels industry and was the founder of AVATAS. Larry successfully lobbied MasterCard to reclassify home heating retailers into a low risk utility processing category, resulting in billions of dollars of savings. Imagine what we can do for you.

Perpetually drive down processing costs and take control!
Talk to the experts at 617.843.5700 today!

